ABOUT CRH

Defending Michigan employers since 1977.

Charfoos Reiter Hébert PC specializes in the defense of workers' compensation and related actions. We are locally owned, cover the whole state, and bring more than a century of combined experience to every claim.

OUR FIRM

A practice built on depth, not breadth.

For nearly five decades, Charfoos Reiter Hébert PC has represented employers and insurance carriers in workers' compensation matters across Michigan. Our attorneys understand the Workers' Disability Compensation Act in detail — and the practical realities of managing claims while keeping a business running.

We handle claims from first report through hearing and appeal, managing communications with claimants, insurers, and employers so our clients can focus on their operations. Our goal is always the same: a fair, efficient, and cost-conscious result.

Members of our firm helped establish the National Workers' Compensation Defense Network, which gives our clients access to carefully selected defense firms across the country when claims cross state lines.
